

The 26th International Conference on Computational Linguistics

Osaka, Japan | 11 - 16 December 2016

<http://coling2016.anlp.jp>

COLING 2016, the 26th International Conference on Computational Linguistics will be held at Osaka International Convention Center (OICC) from 11th-16th December 2016. The COLING conference is organized under the auspices of the International Committee on Computational Linguistics (ICCL).

COLING covers a broad spectrum of technical areas related to natural language and computation. The conference will include full papers (presented as oral presentations or posters), demonstrations, tutorials, and workshops. Oral and poster presentations of full papers will not be distinguished in the proceedings of the conference.

We invite the submission of papers on original and unpublished research on all aspects of computational linguistics.

Topics include, but are not limited to:

- Pragmatics, discourse, semantics, syntax, grammar and the lexicon;
- Lexical semantics and ontologies;
- Word segmentation, tagging and chunking;
- Parsing, syntactic and semantic;
- Semantic role labeling;
- Discourse relations;
- Dialogue and conversational agents;
- Language generation;
- Summarization;
- Question answering;
- Paraphrasing and textual entailment;
